

I hereby acknowledge this Nominee _____ for the El Paso Baseball Hall of Fame has not been convicted of a felony as per my signature:

The person I am nominating is aware of my action and agrees to assist in the process. I understand my Nominee to be qualified for this submission.

I will submit all required documentation by the Deadline requested and will not ask for any extension. I understand 3 hard printed copies with a cover page photo and covers are to be submitted and that emailed copies are non-compliant. I understand a non-compliant submission will disqualify my Nominee from being considered. The information provided is verifiable and representative of my Nominee.

I understand fulfillment of requested documentation in formats that are required including a bio in word format within a 300-word count parameter, resume, pictures, articles supporting nomination and individual picture in requested jpg format. I understand that I must also prepare a cover sheet for the nomination. I understand that I must also submit a one-page narrative to be used by the Nomination Committee for Presentation should my nominee advance to the second stage of review.

Upon submission, I understand that if necessary any communication will be initiated by members of either the Executive Committee or Nomination Committee.

If my Nominee is elected, I will assist in any and all marketing requested of a Member of the El Paso Baseball Hall of Fame Class of 2026 to include updating information for Press Releases, assisting with time deadlines for ticket request and collection for First Pitch event and Induction Banquet sales and collection.

I further agree to comply with requests for marketing assistance including emails as an outreach to support my Nominee and other elected Members of the Class of 2026. My efforts will be mindful of the positive engagement and encouragement for all members of the Class of 2026 with Inductions scheduled August 2, 2026.
